Acknowledgements

The research Lost and Found. Processes of abandonment of the architectural and urban heritage in inner areas: Causes, effects, and narratives (Italy, Albania, Romania) has been funded by the DASTU Department of the Politecnico di Milano with Ricerche di Base (RIBA) funds 2021. The research implied a multidisciplinary approach by involving researchers from many fields of interest: Economic history, urban planning, history of architecture and architectural preservation, and sociology. The research group was coordinated by Annunziata Maria Oteri and involved Marco Mareggi, Agostino Petrillo, and Sonia Pistidda from the Politecnico di Milano with the collaboration of Francesca Vigotti, Caterina Valiante, Robertà Pellicanò and Morena Scaglia; Nino Sulfaro from the University Mediterranea of Reggio Calabria, and Renato Sansa from the University of Calabria with the collaboration of Antonio Buttiglione. The research also involved Irina Tulbure Moldovan from the Ion Mincu University, Bucarest, with Diana Mihnea, Oana C. Țiganea and Emilia Tugui, and Gjergji Islami with Denada Veizaj from the Politecnico of Tirana, Albania. Acquisition and processing of drone images for orthophoto production of the case studies in Calabria is by Luigi Barazzetti, ABC Department, Politecnico di Milano; Rosa Maria Rombolà, DASTU, Politecnico di Milano, supported the cartographic analyses and GIS elaboration.

Thanks are extended to the Mayor of Bruzzano, Giuseppe Cuzzola, for the hospitality and for providing access to the municipal archive; the Public Works Councillor of the Municipality of Africo, Gioacchino Mollica, and the association “Insieme per Africo” for hosting us at the Carrà Refuge and accompanying us on the beautiful excursion to Old Africo, along with the guides from the Aspromonte Park; the former mayor of Canolo, Silvio Larosa, who provided valuable information and documents on Canolo and shared with the research group stories and accounts about the relocation of Canolo; the municipal administration of Canolo for granting us access to the municipal archive; the former director of the State Archives of Reggio Calabria, Maria Mallamace, and archivist Cristina Brandolino for their help in the challenging search for archival material.
